SPONSORSHIPS

If anybody has any more ideas for sponsorships please let me know and I will be glad to visit or send a request. It looks like we will be a little short so please feel free to make a personal contribution of any amount. Just please be sure and put “sponsorship” on your check and REMEMBER that we have PayPal on our website! Thank you to ALL who have made contributions or have worked to bring them in!

HORSE SHOWS

Unfortunately our first PWHAT show was cancelled due to weather conditions. We hope to reschedule but have no date at this time. Don't forget the next show scheduled for June 22 at Waterfall Farm in Shelbyville, TN.

TRAIL RIDES

The next PWHAT trail ride is scheduled for June 14, in Culleoka, TN. Beginning at 10 o'clock the ride is approximately 2 and ½ hours. Contact person for this ride is Ida Marie Carlough 615-337-2018.

June 28th will find the trail riders at Natchez Trace-Garrison Creek Trail Head- Leipers Fork, TN. The ride starts at 10:00 a.m. Bring a lunch for the end of the ride. Contact persons for this ride are Tom Hall 615-890-8786 or Milessa Pendleton 615-849-5559. Directions for these rides may found on the PWHAT website.

CLINICS

Rising Glory Farms will host a clinic by Sam Powell June 21-23. For more information contact Chris Carlough -General Manager 615.957.7170//931.359.2562

VOLUNTEER CARPENTERS

Our PWHAT trailer needs to be organized on the inside (it's metal inside) and it would be great if we could have some shelves or something inside. Any master carpenters that have the time

TREASURER'S REPORT We have $14,818.73 in our checking account with $20,000 plus interest in our CD.

MORE PROMOTION

Rising Glory Farm was the host to almost 100 senior citizens from Arkansas, Texas, and Mississippi. The group is part of “Mystery Tour” that makes spring and fall trips through the area. This was their first time to stop at the barn. They were treated to a demonstration by some of the horses, live music and a barbecue dinner. Mr. Pacesetter and Tina Singleton both donned their overalls and straw hats to greet the visitors much to the delight of the participants.

FLATSHOD CELEBRATION UPDATE

PWHAT Flatshod Celebration is on track and we are very excited about holding it the Sunday following the Pleasure and Colt International at Miller Coliseum in Murfreesboro! So that everyone that wants to show is able to do so, we need some volunteers (non-show people) to handle several jobs during the show. These are the jobs that need to be filled: gatekeepers, DQP runners, entry people, ringmaster, ribbon givers. The show will start at 10:00 with versatility classes and the rail classes will begin at 4:00 with 34 classes in all. Of course we do not expect anybody to work all day – we hope to have enough volunteers so that nobody has to work over 2-3 hours. This is your chance to become involved – we need you! Please email me-Nancy Hall- at nhall@pwhat.com if you are interested. THANKS!

TRAIL RIDES IN MAY

Our trail rides got off to a stormy and rainy start; but, beginning April 12 with Roger Blackburn's with 24 riders, trail riding has been great. For the Cordell Hull ride we had 14 riders with ideal weather. The Strolling Jim ride had 184 riders, good food, and Chamber of commerce weather. We had 8 of our regular PWHAT riders. The ride was planned and organized by Horse Play Inc., a non-profit recreational and therapeutic riding program for mentally and physically challenged children. The fee for the ride was $15, which included a meal and a very enjoyable scenic Middle Tennessee ride. The Cedars of Lebanon ride gave folks a new and better understanding of the trails available. This was a new ride on our schedule for this year. Our host was Kenneth Harris who has ridden the trails on his Century Farm –which backs up to the park- and the Park since he was a child. His barn lot provided great parking, and his patio and shaded yard provided an ideal place for lunch. We want to thank PWHAT for the excellent food, and we especially want to thank Nancy Hall and Abby Fricia for making the meal happen.

PWHAT/WHOA/HOOFBEATS show has been rescheduled for Saturday, September 13 at Womack Stables in Murfreesboro.

Listed below are the standings for the saddle contest for the end of May.

:# 1 Thelma Patton	10 3/4 hrs
