Trail Rider Release Form

Under Tennessee law, an equine professional is not liable for any injury to or death of a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities, pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated, title 44, Chapter 20.

I fully understand that horseback riding and trail riding are very dangerous activities. I wish to accept and assume all the risks of injury (including death) to me or my property.

In exchange for being permitted to participate in these activities, myself, my heirs, guardians, and legal representatives, I release and agree not to make or bring any claim of any kind against the Pleasure Walking Horse Association of TN, or its landholders or other persons making property available for PWHAT, for any injury (including death) to me or any damage or theft to my property whether from anyone's negligence or not, or any other cause arising out of my participation in these related activities, and I also agree if anyone makes any claims because of any injury to me (including death) or for any damage to my property, I will keep all those released by this agreement free of any damages or costs because of those claims.
